

Meet Brittany Beaujean!

I was born and raised in Anchorage, Alaska. My career thus far has been committed to helping people become the best, healthiest versions of themselves.

I earned my Bachelors and Masters in Social Work from the University of Alaska Anchorage. I have worked in the Social Work field for 15 years, with Anchorage Community Mental Health Services, Volunteers of America, and Providence Alaska Medical Center, providing counseling and support to children, youth, and their families. I joined the Friends of Alaska Board in 2018.

Knitting, reading, traveling, and spending quality time with family and friends are some of my favorite activities. I value friendship, trust, compassion, social justice, and integrity. I love Harry Potter, reading, and adventures.
